

Kiti, i love you

Love you Fr.

Sweetheart may you have good dreams and i will always wish for a more

happy Sanskriti, the next day. Kiti, sometimes yk just there are moments when it all feels so unreal like yk.. like a dream. Where i just end up thinking "What good even i did to get such a wonderful moment"

That happens a lot to me with you. I remember the old times of us where we used to be that shy shy couple but slowly and slowly, it feels very normal to be around each other like some very crucial part. I just wish to get you in all my lives remaining. And if i could, in our next iteration, i just wish that all your diseases

and problems be mine practically so that you wouldn't have suffered and all Tbh i would've taken your disability too in present life if i could.

Anyways, why am i
talking bout that.

Prolly cuz i feel and want to support
you in every part of your life, our life. Anyways.

Good Night Sweetie

Muahh!!!

I love you
