

Letter

Vanshu,

Damn I have been taking some of your catch phrases and habits

And I know you think online friendships and all are a waste of time maybe we won't be in touch In future but I want you to have this one letter from me.

More like a memorandum from me. Or us or our friendship.

Rn if I could name the most important people to me you would also be there after my family and someone who would be worth to talk and be given efforts for

I know your dad said that you are changing and it did hit you hard and maybe it's true too who knows changes are inevitable but please don't ever become a stranger whose laugh (says a lot of things other than laugh ) I could recognise anywhere bbg I will repeat again in my dictionary.

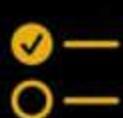

again in my dictionary:

You are as pure as pure goes in my dictionary please be the sweet vash I met maybe I saw the best and the worst of you and it doesn't matter to me cuz I will be there for you regardless of how times are,

I know that sounds concerning but that what exactly is what: accepting someone in their all forms means so let me help you or let me try at least I am sorry for chasing you so much every time that you left I always chased you cuz I always cared tbh I care too much that is my toxic trait and thank you for always making the second part of the efforts and coming right back.

Maybe in future we will be some strangers but I will never forget you ,I am not much of a goldfish when it comes to people who made it worth breathing and made it easier to live.

I am always and will always wish the best for you wherever you will be or best for you wherever you will be or whatever you will be doing and I know you will grow up to a beautiful person from your heart don't let no one mould it for you. Don't let no shit make you feel stranded, I hope you are smiling well and has a good appetite and humour. Thank you for making it easier and thank you for being there for me even when it got hard and choosing me in your days , days when it was hard, especially then. I am grateful to have met you but I am sorry that you had to meet a soul like mine.

In all forms live well vansh Sharma.
This will be a part of me which will let go of a part of you.
